For nearly 30 years, the professionals at Wateridge Insurance Services have been planning, developing and implementing quality risk management and insurance programs for businesses and individuals. We are independent and locally owned; we work for you, not an insurance company.

Whether you need protection for your home, auto, life, health, or business, you can depend on Wateridge Insurance Services. Because we are an independent agency representing the highest quality insurance companies, we have the flexibility to offer you many options. We do all the shopping, at no cost to you. After we determine your insurance needs, we'll offer you expert advice about the company and coverage that best suits your needs.

Wateridge Insurance Services has a proven record of providing quality protection and personal service at a competitive price.
